Dear Parents,

I welcome you and the incoming freshman class to Galena Park High School for the 2008-2009 school year. There are a couple of things I want to inform you about as we head into the summer.

Freshman Orientation: We will have a freshman orientation on Thursday August 21, 2008. It will begin at 6:30 p.m. in the school auditorium. At that time I will briefly speak to the freshman class and their parents. I will also introduce the 9th grade teachers and counselors. Students and parents will be invited to tour the school and students can pick up schedules at that time. I would like for every freshman to meet their core teachers and see where their classes are located.

Dress Code: We will follow the school board's policy regarding dress code for traditional high schools. We do not require school uniforms. Students will be issued ID badges during the first two weeks of school and students will be required to wear their ID badge at all times while on school grounds.

Please feel free to contact me with any questions and concerns. Galena Park High School is dedicated to helping your child have a successful 9th grade experience. Please check our district and campus websites throughout the summer for important school information. We are looking forward to working with you and your child.
