

Press Release

November 30, 2020

Galena Park High Schools Names the 2020 Homecoming Queen and King

Houston, Texas: On Friday night, November 20, Galena Park High School (GPHS) played their homecoming game against Houston Sharpstown High School. The Yellow Jackets beat the Sharpstown Apollos by a score of 64-0.

During halftime, Giovanna Morales and Brice Hernandez were announced as the 2020 Homecoming Queen and King. Morales is a brass captain and section leader for the GPHS Band of Gold, and she is also a successful dual credit student. Upon graduation, she would like to pursue a major in animation at an art school. Hernandez is a three-year varsity football player with hopes of one day playing in the NFL. Currently, he is being recruited by several universities to play football and is undecided on his major. Hernandez is working hard in school and on the football field to make his NFL dream become a reality.

Congratulations, Giovanna and Brice!

Department of Communications
Services

832.386.1000

Website:
www.galenaparkisd.com

Story Credits: Elyse Rountree

Photo Credit: GPHS