- f) Mindful Moment

ACTIONS: "Social distancing" during Coronavirus school closures can impact your routine and regular de-stressers in your life like talking to friends, exercising, and being outside. Social isolation can lead to low energy levels and decreased optimism. How can you add exercise, fresh air, social interactions (online or in person), and/or mindful moments to your current stay-at-home routine? List at least three de-stress strategies you'll try in the next few days:

What will you do to de-stress?	Where?/How?	When?
3)

REFLECTION: After you do your de-stress strategies, reflect on the experience. How did it affect your thoughts and emotions?
