

SOME ASSEMBLY REQUIRED

Things for Teachers

Volume 1 Issue 3

THE KEY TO SUCCESS IS CONSISTENCY

Creating consistency is key to an effective learning environment. Students will begin to establish a clear understanding of classroom rules, routines, and behavior as it helps them remain more in control of their actions. When you are consistent, students have a sense of accountability and direction that translates to academic progress.

Learn more here

PEER FEEDBACK

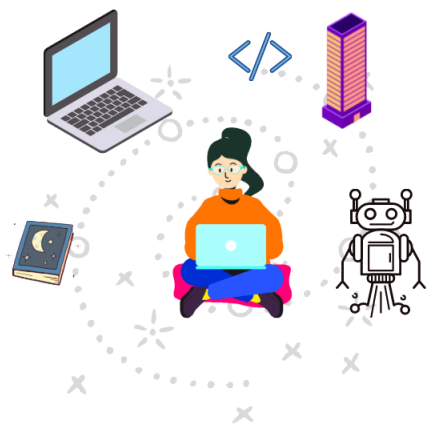

As a teacher, I always loved the idea of peer feedback. Students get feedback from another human being to help them improve their skills. Here's what always held me back from doing it more ... Students are not the best at giving feedback, but it does not have to be that way! And peer feedback is just one type of feedback you could do with your students.

Learn more here

TECHNOLOGY LESSONS FOR STUDENTS

Applied Digital Skills is a totally free, video-based, online curriculum to teach digital skills to your students in all subject areas and for your own professional development. There are over 150 ready-to-use lessons covering a wide range of age levels, tech tools, and topics. Digital skills are more important than ever for our students and for us as educators.

Learn more here

RESOURCES

Have you heard of "We Are Teachers?" It is an amazing resource for ideas and inspiration! This article tackles a big list of FREE teaching resources for all ages and subjects. Everything from interesting lessons, videos, activities and even fun!

Learn more here

SHARE WHAT YOU ARE DOING!!

The best way to help others become great teachers is to share! Tweet out what you are doing in your classroom using @GPISDLearns. Tweet about your procedures for students, the classroom, and instruction! Got a tremendous organizational style? Let us know on Twitter or email!

JOIN US
@GPISDLearns